24th January 2015

Dear Dr. Binod Parameswaran,

I have great pleasure in informing that you have been selected for the Kerala State Young Scientist Award 2014. My congratulations and best wishes to you on this creditable achievement. I am sure that you will continue to pursue your scientific research and excel further in the years to come.

The Award will be presented by the Hon'ble Chief Minister at the inaugural session of the 27th Kerala Science Congress at Alappuzha on 27th January 2015 at 10.00 am. Please be present in the venue by 9.00 am. There will be an Young Scientist Award Work presentation Session on 29th January 2015 at 10.00 in the Science Congress venue. I request you to kindly give a short power point presentation (10 minutes) giving the highlights of your research work.

With regards

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. K. K. Ramachandran)
